Montana State Leadership Conference 'Call Back' Procedure for STAR Events

Up to two STAR Event entrants in each event (with the exception of Culinary Arts) may qualify for National FCCLA. Therefore, each event must result in a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place ranking (based on scores).

- 1. 'Call Backs' are used to determine ranking and apply to STAR Event entrants only. Use the following process:
 - a. Two or more sets of evaluators for an event and/or category: The top two entrants scoring at least an 85 with each set of judges per category will return for 'Call Backs'.
 - i. If a set of judges has only one 85+ entrant, then only one entrant enters 'Call Backs'.
 - ii. If a set of judges has no 85+ entrants, no entrants enter 'Call Backs'.
 - iii. Based upon the average score of all judges during call backs, entrants will be ranked 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

b. One set of evaluators for an event and/or category:

ii.

- i. The top three entrants with a score of at least an 85 will be ranked 1^{st} , 2^{nd} , and 3^{rd} .
 - The initial highest score is the 1st place winner.
 - 1. If there is no tie for 1st place, call backs do not need to occur for this placement.
 - 2. If there is a scoring tie for 1st place, both entrants will be called back. The average call back scores will determine which entrant is ranked 1st and 2nd.
- iii. If the initial scoring indicated a clear 2nd place winner, that individual would automatically receive 2nd place (if there was not a tie for first) or 3rd place (if there was a tie for first).
 - 1. If there is a scoring tie for 2nd place, both entrants will be called back. The average call back scores will determine which entrant is ranked 2nd and 3rd.
- iv. If there is a scoring tie for 3rd place, it is at the judge's discretion if call backs will occur. They may either call back the entrants or assign a 3rd place ranking.
- 2. The entrant's medal will be based on the score from the first round evaluation.
 - a. Score sheets from both the first evaluation and the 'Call Back' will be returned to the entrants.
 - b. The Event Lead Coordinator should label the evaluation sheets with 'First Round' and 'Call Back', so the entrant knows which sheet is the official score.
- 3. Evaluators for call backs should be all evaluators from the category call back is being conducted. Any evaluator who knows or is from the same chapter as the competing entrant(s) will be asked to leave and not participate in the 'Call Backs'.
- 4. If a situation arises where all the evaluators are either from the same community as entrants in the 'Call Backs' or are related to entrants in the 'Call Backs', a complete new set of evaluators will be arranged. The STAR Events Management Team will be responsible for finding two non-partial evaluators to complete the evaluation.
- 5. If the Event Lead Coordinator is from a chapter involved in 'Call Backs', that coordinator should turn over the responsibilities to the assistant and not remain in the presentation room during the competition. Both coordinators and/or Management Team should tally scores if home chapters are involved.
- 6. If an entrant does not show up for scheduled 'Call Backs' on time, they will be eliminated from the 'Call Backs'.
