

MONTANA FCS DINE IN DAY

FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCES EDUCATION

- The purpose - to empower individuals and families to manage the challenges of living and working in a diverse society. The unique focus is families, work, and their interrelationships.
- Students explore and prepare for careers as well as engage in hands-on, contextual learning that incorporates academic concepts.
- Students acquire leadership and life skills by collaborating, communicating and thinking critically and creatively to problem-solve real world issues.
- Entrepreneurial activities and work-based learning experiences provide students with unique, hands-on application of skills learned in the classroom.

WHY DECEMBER 3RD?

December 3rd marks the birthday of Ellen Richards, the Founder of the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS). She was the first woman to graduate from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). This date was chosen to honor Richards, the pioneer of Family and Consumer Sciences Education.
