

New Adviser of the Year

Montana FCCLA

What:

The Montana FCCLA New Adviser of the Year Award recognizes an adviser who is in their first five years of advising and has established a growing and well-rounded chapter. The Montana FCCLA New Adviser of the Year is someone who:

- Invests in them self through professional development and other opportunities;
- Actively recruits, retains and recognizes members;
- Supports members to create effective programming;
- Promotes FCCLA and Family and Consumer Sciences throughout their community;
- Inspires members to achieve their goals.

Eligibility:

- Chapter Adviser in years 0-5 of advising an active and affiliated Montana FCCLA Chapter

Award:

- FCCLA Polo or Cardigan
- Recognition at State Leadership Conference

Online Application Process:

- New advisers may be nominated by chapter members, alumni, community members, administrators, other advisers or the State Leadership Team. To nominate an adviser, complete the online nomination form at www.mtfccla.org.
- Nominations must include one, up to three, pictures (with descriptions), of the adviser and/or FCCLA Chapter

Selection Committee:

- The selection committee will be comprised of:
 - 1 State Executive Council Representative
 - 1 Board of Directors Representative
 - Montana FCCLA State Adviser or State Director
 - Up to 2 At-Large Representatives (adviser or member) appointed by the Board of Directors

Due Date:

- February 15
- A confirmation email will be sent upon receipt of the nomination forms.

Questions:

Whitney Whittecar, State Director – director@mtfccla.org

New Adviser of the Year

Nomination Form

Directions: Please complete the nomination form citing specific examples for each question. Form must be submitted online at www.mtfccla.org. Emailed or mailed forms will not be accepted.

Nomination form completed by:

Relationship to adviser:

Email address of person nominating:

Adviser Name:

Chapter Name:

Number of years as a FCCLA Adviser:

1. Why should this individual be named the Montana FCCLA New Adviser of the Year?
2. Describe a FCCLA project in your school. Indicate how the Chapter Adviser helped members to develop the project and why the project made an impact in the community.
3. How does the Chapter Adviser help to recruit, retain and recognize chapter members?
4. How does the Chapter Adviser promote FCCLA and Family and Consumer Sciences throughout the school and community?
5. What activities has the Chapter Adviser participated in to invest in their own professional growth and strength of their chapter? Check all that apply.
 - Fall Leadership Rally
 - District Meeting
 - State Leadership Conference
 - A Phased Approach to FCCLA Mentor Program
 - National Fall Conference
 - National Leadership Conference
 - National FCCLA Adviser Academy
 - Montana FCCLA Board of Directors Member
 - Mentored a State Executive Council Officer
6. Is there other information you would like to add?