

Montana FCCLA Alumni Achievement Award

The Alumni Achievement Award recognizes a past member of Montana FCCLA and/or FHA/HERO who exemplifies the mission and/or purposes of FCCLA and has used his/her experiences to excel in his/her family, career or community.

Successful candidates must have been a member of an FCCLA and/or FHA/HERO chapter in Montana.

Appropriate candidates may include:

- Community members
- Business leaders
- FCCLA Chapter advisers
- Parents

Nominations are open through February 15. Successful nominations will include:

- A completed nomination form
- Current picture (preferably a head shot)

Nominators are encouraged to review the award rubric (below) prior to submitting an award.

Montana FCCLA Alumni Achievement Award Rubric

Category	Exemplary 3	Satisfactory 2	Unsatisfactory 1	Weight	Maximum Points (Score x weight)
Personal & Professional Achievements	Clearly demonstrates significant accomplishments with measurable impact; achievements are well-documented, recent, and highly relevant to FCCLA and/or community service.	Demonstrates some notable accomplishments; impact is mentioned but lacks clear evidence or strong connection to FCCLA/community service.	Provides few or no specific achievements; little to no connection to FCCLA or community service is evident.	3	9
Application of FCCLA Purposes & Mission	Nomination strongly reflects FCCLA's Purposes and Mission; provides clear, specific examples of how the nominee embodies these values in actions and outcomes.	Nomination shows some alignment with FCCLA's Purposes and Mission; examples are provided but are limited or vague.	Little to no evidence that the nominee's actions connect to FCCLA's Purposes or Mission; examples are missing or irrelevant.	3	9

Contributions to FCCLA	Provides multiple, detailed examples of meaningful contributions at local, state, and/or national levels; nominee's efforts have clearly advanced FCCLA's programs or visibility.	Provides at least one example of contribution to FCCLA, though scope and impact are limited or unclear.	No clear contributions to FCCLA are described, or examples provided are minimal and lack significance.	3	9
Overall Nomination Quality	Nomination is exceptionally well-written, organized, and compelling; provides rich detail and strong supporting evidence; free of grammatical or formatting errors.	Nomination is adequately written and organized; some details or supporting evidence are present; minor errors may be present.	Nomination is poorly written or incomplete; lacks organization, detail, or supporting evidence; significant errors distract from content.	3	9
Points Available				36
Points Earned					