

Adult Award Nomination

What:

Chapter advisers are the heart of FCCLA. Montana FCCLA encourages chapter members, administrators, parents, and community members to nominate advisers to be recognized with the following awards:

- New Adviser of the Year: Recognizes a new chapter adviser (5 years or less) who invests in professional development and while building a strong chapter.
- Adviser of the Year: Recognizes a chapter adviser who inspires members to achieve their goals and build a strong program.
- Spirit of Advising: Recognizes chapter advisers who are constantly faithful, often quietly working behind the scenes to ensure the success of their students. Nominations may be made by anyone who works with FCCLA Advisers (members, chapter advisers, school administrators, parents, etc).
